

Advantages of membership

1. creation and provision of legal, political and practical information, partly exclusively for members
2. Advice for members (no legal advice), Clarification of open questions by the management and in the departments as well as referral to specialized lawyers
3. Early information on industry-relevant developments, in particular developments relevant to the industry, in particular about planned changes to the legal framework
4. helping to shape and strengthen the political representation of interests / lobbying vis-à-vis parliaments, governments and authorities of the and federal states
5. Education and public relations
6. Monitoring of all relevant political processes & continuous evaluation of official printed matter, press releases, government, parliamentary and judicial documents
7. Free use of the association newsletter as an information channel to publish job postings and relevant company news
8. Opportunity to launch and support political and economic initiatives
9. Opportunity to volunteer to work with and help shape policy objectives in areas of expertise
10. Highlighted listing in the upcoming cannabis industry directory
11. Referral of speakers
12. Supporting industry-wide and cross-industry collaborations & networking
13. Collection and provision of business leads & offers
14. Targeted events, e.g. symposia, parliamentary evening, cannabis economy day
15. Expert support for model lawsuits
16. Discounts for members (e.g. for selected trade fairs & portals as well as for the planned seal of approval)
17. Membership fees are tax deductible
18. Use of our association software including forum, diary & database
19. Subscription to Cannavision (magazine of the cannabis economy)
20. Future: Improved access to market and analysis data

Our influence today helps determine the laws of the coming years and decades. That's why it's important to do pioneering work right now, to work on many construction sites and to drill thick boards. The more members our association gains, the more work we can take on and help create clear and fair rules for legal hemp businesses in the long run. With your membership you contribute to legally secure and expand your business in the long run. For this, we also need your support. Together we are strong.

Become a member

Branchenverband Cannabiswirtschaft e.V.

Luisenstr. 54
10117 Berlin
Germany

www.cannabiswirtschaft.de/english/

The voice of the cannabis economy